Reminder of Chris Osman's talk in July

Last month we learned from a video on composition by Sean Tucker.

Sean talked about composition being:
to tell a visual story
using our intuition

thinking about how human's take in visual information'.

Reminder of Chris Osman's talk in July

These are the 4 attributes to take into account

1. The brightest thing(s) in an image
2. The most saturated colour
3. Contrast
4. Any human faces
